GETTING STARTED WITH FPINNOVATIONS' RESEARCH LIBRARY

library.fpinnovations.ca

With over 10,000 reports spanning over 50 years of research, FPInnovations' Research Library represents some of the most important literature in forestry, wood products, pulp, paper, and bioproducts. While the site is open to the public who can search a large portion of free reports and documents, members of FPInnovations have access to confidential reports and recorded webinars in their sector.

FEATURES

User-friendly interface allows you to navigate the site easily so you can find your results quickly.

Advanced search engine lets you find results based on numerous parameters (subject, author, year, etc.), and includes searches of the full text of reports, not just keywords or abstracts.

Quick-start option lets you see reports by collection.

Available 24/7 so you can access results any time of the day or night.

REGISTRATION

There is no need to register to access the database. Only members of FPInnovations need to register to access the materials confidential to their membership sector:

1. On the main page at library.fpinnovations.ca, press the Register here button.

2. Enter your valid email address from a recognized member company (this will also serve as your username) and continue to enter the required information.

That's it! Your confirmation will be sent to your email address within 48 hours. For future visits, simply log in with the username and password that you created during the registration process to access all the content available to your sector.

SEARCH THE RESEARCH LIBRARY

Easily search for reports by entering a term or phrase into the search box. Select the Advanced Search and Browse option to refine your search, for example, by author, title, subject, or area of research.

Advanced search tip
Don't know the entire title? Use the asterisk (*) as a placeholder for 1 or more words.

VIEW FULL REPORTS

The complete PDF files of reports are available for immediate download. Either click the Select button below the record to add to your cart when choosing multiple reports, or simply click on the title to view more information on the report, including a download button.

Sharing tip
You can click the Permalink button under the record to copy the URL from your browser to point others to the report.

THE REPORT IS NOT AVAILABLE?
We are continually adding both new and historic records to the database. Should you happen to find a record that is missing the full text:

1. Click on the Select button below the record.

2. Click on the View Selections option at the top of the page.

3. Click on the Request more information button.

Our library team will be notified, and you will receive the document by email.
